Prologue - - -

To have been a part of a college in the days of its youth is indeed a gratifying and a novel experience. For in this age when so many educational institutions are measured to a large degree in terms of history and tradition, it is nice to know that perhaps we have been instrumental in the forming of the tradition of RPI.

We who have attended the Richmond Professional Institute have learned, among other things, that the thirst for knowledge can be quenched as satisfactorily in a makeshift classroom as it can in a colossal lecture hall. We have discovered that the quest for an education need not meander around a spacious campus beside ivy-covered walls nor along sorority lane and fraternity row. We have, in fact, discovered that the physical tools are secondary. We have found that the student must first of all have the desire. From the desire comes willingness, and from that is sure to come the mental compatibility of student and instructor. Those are the things that count. And those things we have found at RPI.

As we take our leave from this institute of learning, it is encouraging to see new buildings taking shape, new mortar being mixed, and plumb lines being stretched. It gives us a prelude glance into the future of the school. And we believe that we can see RPI fifty years hence; larger, more widely known and recognized, and still growing—still meeting the need of the hour.

Of course we shall remember it as the RPI we knew, with Monroe Park for our campus and classes meeting beneath its trees in May. We shall remember the long yellow fingers of the April sun reaching between the leaves of a magnolia tree and stroking a co-ed's hair as she sat studying beside the Administration building. We shall remember spring and the gardens in Richmond. We shall remember the old Southern homes standing as they did in the days of the Confederacy, dignified, stately and rich in southern lore.

We'll remember the evenings when we hurried from dorm to dorm, from building to building when the air was filled with needles, when the stars hung so low over Shafer Street that you thought you might have hit one with a stone, and the muffled growl of Franklin Street traffic creeping through the first snow. We'll remember Byrd Park on autumn afternoons with the swans circling slowly and the smell of burning leaves in the air.

These things we shall remember along with the history, the literature, the music, the art, the science, and humor.

It has been an opportunity. And though we may not have always made the most of that opportunity, we leave RPI with the profound belief that ours has been a richer life for coming. We go our ways believing that we are better equipped to face the complexities of life. We believe that we have acquired some knowledge of the techniques of living. And for all those things we say, thanks RPI.

Dedication

Rounding out her 26th year of work here at RPI, MRS. VIRGIE CHALKLEY is retiring as Hostess of Founders Hall. The ever popular house mother has long been a favorite with students and faculty alike. Always devoted to her work, MRS. CHALKLEY never forgot her girls—she always put them first.

Her gentle nature produced a steadying influence at Founders, as it did around the campus. Her willingness to help won for her the respect and admiration of all who came to know her.

Somewhere in the book of trite sayings could be found an appropriate adage to quote here. Yet there is little left to be said, for her long years of loyalty to RPI and its students speak for themselves. Her absence will leave a void not easily filled.

So it is with deep respect that we, the staff of the Wigwam, dedicate this annual to MRS. VIRGIE CHALKLEY.

Our Dean

DEAN HENRY H. HIBBS
A.B., Cumberland College; A.M., Brown University
Ph.D., Columbia University

Without question no other individual has been more significant in RPI's rapid climb up the educational ladder as has Dean Henry H. Hibbs. Since the inception of RPI in 1917 Dr. Hibbs has been the guiding and controlling force in the school's development. His executive and administrative ability have been decisive factors in building in RPI perhaps one of the most unique colleges of its kind in the South. His sincere and genuine interest in student activities has won the respect and admiration of the entire student body. Our Dean's progressive spirit has been reflected in the physical and academic growth of RPI.

Our Advisor

DR. MARGARET JOHNSON
Administrative Assistant
Advisor to Women Students
Head of Department of Modern Languages
A.B., Barnard College
A.M. and Ph.D., Columbia University

Always interested in perpetuating school spirit, Dr. Margaret L. Johnson has been a chief coordinator for RPI. Her genuine interest in student activities and interests befits her role as Dean of Students.

Despite the pressing nature of her administrative duties, she finds time to counsel RPI's various clubs and organizations in an effort to obtain maximum student spirit. It is largely through her cooperation that student-faculty relations at RPI have been so close.

As faculty advisor to the Wigwam, Dr. Johnson's suggestions and advice have aided in the production of this annual.

Looking back through the collegiate days at the Richmond Professional Institute, we the seniors of 1952 feel it a gift of pride. During these years we have heightened our education through the ceaseless efforts of the administration and the students. May the future opportunities prepare us to be happy, well-rounded citizens.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

To most of us, the year of 1948 is memorable only because it marks the beginning of our college careers. The big news of '48 was the presidental election and the upset of the dopesters. It was a prosperous year, and a year between wars. Many of the G I's were rested by now, and the war seemed a distant memory. The servicemen were flocking back to school and 1948 saw enrollment in American Colleges and Universities hit an all time high. People fell in love, got married, had babies. The world seemed to be revolving on its axis at about the proper speed, and life seemed good. Meanwhile we donned our beanies, grabbed our notebooks and pencils and seriously got down to the business of acquiring a college education.

Under the leadership of President Bill Johnson, our freshman class was really rolling by the spring of '49. The outstanding events of that spring were the freshman-sophomore hayride and dance, and the May Day festival.

In 1949-'50 we were sophomores and ankle deep in the college pool. Some of our members hadn't returned to RPI, but we had acquired some new members so we had a typical sophomore class.

The years of 1950-'51 found many of our male members casting apprehensive glances in the direction of the Far East where the cold war had suddenly turned not so cold. Ronald Feaster was elected class president that year and Bobbie Cohn was elected class sweetheart for the May Court. We had the usual number of dances, and other social functions. Meanwhile we fixed our eyes upon June, 1952, and pressed our shoulders to the wheel.

On October 2, 1951, we held our first class meeting to discover that we had only two returning officers from last year. An election was held during the next week; the new officers were installed at the next meeting. We were in the final stretch now and it looked like a dry track, so we surged ahead.

And thus it is that finally we have reached the docks from where we must embark. Our feet are planted upon the mammoth timbers of the ages. Our eager eyes are turned toward an eastern sky where we behold the kindling of a new day. Our barks ride restlessly upon the waves and strain at their moorings. Already a wind is rising and the sleeping sails unfold their arms to the breeze. Soon we must be off.

We are not unaware of the frailness of our crafts, nor of the storms that lie along our sea paths. We believe that we are able seamen and that we shall not founder helplessly in a raging sea. Our charts have been drafted by kind and capable hands, and we believe that we shall certainly sail into smooth and tranquil waters.

Ours has been a challenge, and we have accepted that challenge. We sail; each in his own direction and each to his own destiny, but all with a common purpose . . . that out of darkness, we may assist in bringing light; that out of chaos and confusion we may be instrumental in bringing order; that to a tired and disillusioned world we may help to bring new faith, new hope, and new dreams, that is our fervent desire.

And so to our Alma Mater, our patient and wise instructors, our roommates, classmates and friends, and to all those who have so adequately served to make college a memorable and worthy event, we say, Aloha.

The Juniors, almost confident now of their graduation, take an active part in school activities. This can be seen during the first week of school when they initiate the freshmen during Rat Week. Many of the class can be spotted wearing Rat Court arm bands and pestering the newcomers, an activity unknown in the Old Southern days.

Besides adopting little sisters and brothers to usher around, the class of '53 sponsored an informal dance in the gym. In the spring begin their campaigns for next year's offices.

Through their first difficult year of college, our plucky sophomores realize the necessity for friendliness and are always ready to lend a helping hand.

Besides assisting in other school functions, this class sponsored the Rat Dance to welcome our newcomers and to help them become acquainted with the old students.

Developing from a school level, this club strives and succeeds in bettering social relationships at RPI.

The freshmen entered in September, eager to learn of college life. As soon as they made a few friends, the trials of Rat Week began. But this class of '55 were as spunky as they had been eager, and lived to put on rousing campaigns for office elections.

Now that they know the school ropes, plans for May Day are being made, which the freshmen will sponsor in the spring.

December 27th, 1951

Mr. Charles F. Decker
Editor, 1952 "Iwigwam"
712 W. Franklin Ave.
Richmond 20, Virginia

Dear Mr. Decker:

It has been a pleasure to select the prettiest girls of the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes for your yearbook, "Iwigwam." The photographs of the candidates, which you submitted, were all so attractive, that I found it difficult to make a decision. It was also difficult to make my selection without seeing and talking to each contestant.

The winners were selected on the basis of personality, character, and intelligence, as well as, of course, for natural beauty. My choice was influenced, of course, by my great interest in and admiration for the natural girl.

If the contestants are ever in New York, it would be a pleasure to meet them. With best wishes to the contestants, to the staff of the 1952 "Iwigwam" and to the students of Richmond Professional Institute, I am

Sincerely yours,

John Robert Powers

The Cotillion Club is a "sister" organization to the German Club. Its membership is open to all women students who attend the Richmond Professional Institute. Like the German Club, it is strictly a social organization, yet, taking part in the interest of the entire student body.

The purposes of the club are, first, to bring into closer relationship, by means of social activities, the women dormitory and day students, and secondly, to sponsor at least two formal dances each year and several activities.

This year the Cotillion Club held their fall formal at the Jefferson Hotel, and in the spring held an informal dance in the gym. The spring formal was also held in a hotel ballroom.

Elizabeth S. Harrison

The student body and faculty members of this college were profoundly shocked and grieved by the untimely death of Elizabeth S. Harrison, nineteen, of Lawrenceville, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident last December.

Betsy, Treasurer of the Cotillion Club, was respected and loved by all those who knew her. It is to the memory of this girl, our classmate, that this page is humbly dedicated.

1951-'52 German Club

The German Club is the only men's social club on campus. Its membership is open to all male students regularly enrolled at the Richmond Professional Institute upon payment of initiation fees and dues.

Although the German Club functions primarily as a social club, many activities are pursued for the benefit of the entire student body. The members add constructive criticism toward the well-being of the school at large and periodically submit recommendations to the Student Government Association.

Highlights in the Club's activities for the year included a fall outing at Camp Kentwood, the Shipwreck Dance, the Third Annual Minstrel Show, a Spring outing, and the Fall and Spring formal dinner dances.

Along with the sponsoring of these many activities, the German Club gives a feeling of fraternal spirit to the men students here at RPI.

Student Government Association

BROOKS TRAWEEK, President

VIVIAN TRESTMAN, Vice-President

LLOYD ROGERS, Secretary

The Student Government Association of RPI being the center for information, discussion, and co-operation among the student body and the faculty, maintains an active organization. The council is composed of representatives from each class, each club, and each dormitory. Drury Lyle, who resigned in November due to his heavily scheduled curriculum, led the governing organization effectively. To replace the former president, the council elected Brooks Traweek, who ran for the office previously.

The Honor Council of RPI, an organization of the student body, is composed of elected members. The duty of the students is to uphold the principle of the honor code.

The president of the Women's Honor Council was Vivian Trestman. The other members were Pat Vint, Virginia Harvey, Carolyn Cooksey, Peggy Johnson, Pat Kessler, Joyce Burroughs, Ann McCuiston, Anna Margaret Johnson, and Ann Huffman, speaker.

Brooks Traweek was president of the Men's Honor Council. Serving with him were Bill Heywood, Raymond Ayers, James Dillon, Dic Carlyon, Danny Wilkins, Paul Coffey, Johnnie Kloss, Ray King, and speaker, Maxie Mason.

Alumni Association

Approximately one hundred and fifty students of the past years returned for the second successful RPI Alumni Association Home-Coming in October. The enthusiasm expressed by the members was certainly a sign of progress and growth. Through the administration and the recent student bodies, the alumni feel that this organization will have a steady increase in members.

A successful dance and banquet was held in the Jefferson Hotel at the beginning of the year. Included among their resourceful activities was the publication of Alumni News, which was published four times yearly for all alumni.

The officers this year were Jack Creasy, '42, President; Dabney Darrocott, '50, Vice-President; Mary Jo Stahl Southall, '40, Secretary; William Sewell, '49, Treasurer; and Lola Mae Shiflett, Executive Secretary.

REMINISCENCES

Gee, but I'd give the world to see that old gang of mine.
I can't forget that old quartet that sang "Sweet Adeline."
Good-bye forever, old fellows and gals,
Good-bye forever, old sweethearts and pals. . .
Gee, but I'd give the world to see that old gang of mine!

It might be interesting to know how many times in future years the essence of that old song will be repeated by the Alumni of RPI. Oh yes, the years will come and the years will go, and the old mill wheel will make many turns! But forget the old gang? Never. The old gang never grows old . . . never dies . . . for the old gang is locked deep, deep within our hearts. That's it.

And who is the old gang? Why, look around you. The old gang is the personalities, characters if you must call them so . . . the Charlies, Abes, Joes, Dots, Ediths, Kathies, and Matildas. Personalities? Sure. All of them. Good, bad, sparkling, charming, and maybe a little dull sometimes, but personalities, you bet.

The fat boy; ruddy, good-natured, cheerful and boring. The fellow who always needed a hair cut; poetic, philosophical, and undernourished. The girl who was always trying to steal everybody's date; charming, attractive—and, oh, how I hated her! But gee, I wonder whatever happened to her! Thought she was going to write. The girl who tried to mother everybody—sweet, not so attractive, but a heart as big as a football. What a lovable character! And that giggly girl. The one who could never be serious. Always getting in dutch. Always borrowing.

The professor who likes my poetry. Said I had possibilities; but he didn't say possibilities for what. The little English instructor who always had time to listen. But then, they all did. Have to go a long way to find a better group of teachers. Or could you? . . . Patient, wise, humble, sweet. Gee, I wonder!

By the way . . . what ever happened to that big fellow who used to snore like a freight train? Couldn't say much to him. Big as a horse. The woman-hater. What a laugh! The boaster. The loud mouth. The guy who knew all the answers. And the guy who knew none. And of course, of course: that one special pal. The one from who you kept nothing. Always understood . . . always lent a sympathetic ear. Man, you couldn't run that ear over! Good old Joe. Good old Millie. What I wouldn't give to see them now!

That's them. That's us. That's what makes college college. Gosh, I wouldn't have missed knowing them for all the rice in China! Wonder what they're doing, and where they are?

Guess I'll have to take in that Home-Coming next year.

Although the Fine Arts Group is a professional club, its main purpose is to promote interest and to bring the students together in social functions. Its membership is open to all Fine Arts, Art Education and Craft majors.

Each year this club awards a complete tuition fellowship to a worthy student. The club sponsors lectures and educational films, and this year participated in sponsoring the carnival, auction and Mardi Gras.

The Advertising Art Club is a combination social and educational group. The activities of this club are varied. Entertainment at the annual Carnival, which is held to raise money for the Art Students League Mardi Gras, was conducted by the members of this organization. In the spring the group had a successful picnic.

The Theatre Associates provides social activities, as well as assisting the staff in the production of the major plays of the year and the one-act plays that the Drama Department puts on in the Studio Theatre.

The club membership is open to all drama department students and those outside of the department who meet the requirements and wish to join.

Fashion Club

Seated: Louise Sanderford
Standing (Left to Right): Lois Cooper, Dot Rice, Mrs. Hazel P. Mundy, Phyllis Poole, Jean Landrum

OFFICERS

Dot Rice . . . . . President
Phyllis Poole . . . . . Vice-President
Lois Cooper . . . . . Secretary
Jean Landrum . . . . . Treasurer
Ann Huffman . . . . . S. G. A. Representative
Lillian Moore . . . . . A. S. L. Representative

The purpose of the Fashion Club is to unify the two departments of costume design and fashion illustration. Any student majoring in one of these departments may join the club.

Speakers are invited to the meetings from the fields of advertising and clothing. These acquaint the students with the problems they will meet, as well as the opportunities they should seek.

This year the principal social function was a Christmas dance for the club to knit the members more closely together.

Interior Decoration Club

OFFICERS

Matt Stampalia	President
John Root	Vice-President
Pat Kessler	Secretary
Alex Marsh	Treasurer
Jane Welch	S. G. A. Representative

The Interior Decoration Club strives to promote professionalism among the members. Anyone in this department may be a member.

Representatives from the field of Interior Decoration are invited to speak at the meetings to afford the students a clearer understanding of what lies ahead of them. The principal social function of this organization is an outing in the spring.

The new treasurer for second semester was Don Bennett, who was chosen following the resignation of Alex Marsh.

Accidental Club

Standing: Frances Webb, Mr. Charles Craig
Seated (Left to Right): Leslie Oakley, Rachelen Jones. Frances Tiller, Arnold Hyman

OFFICERS

Arnold Hyman	President
Leslie Oakley	Vice-President

Roberta Kephart	Vice-President
Nannette Beavers	Secretary-Treasurer
Charlotte Wallin	S. G. A. Representative
Mrs. Ruth Wilkins	Faculty Advisor
Rev. Alton	Religious Advisor

The members of the Canterbury Club have brought closer union and fellowship to many Episcopal students at RPI through mutual interests.

At Christmas, this club was among the other religious organizations on campus which sponsored a dance and party. Once every month the members have a corporate communion and breakfast. Also supper and panel discussions are held twice a month on Sundays.

Newman Club

Standing: Charlie Mahon, Charlie Decker
Seated (Left to Right): Mimi Gowen, Father Hickman, Doris Anderson

OFFICERS

Charles Mahon	President

P. F. Lipinski	Faculty Advisor
Father R. O. Hickman	Moderator

Upholding the spiritual and social interest of its members, the Newman Club, a club of Catholic culture and fellowship, assists the school and its students into a common union.

The varied and inspiring programs given by the members of the club have been resourceful. Their activities have included: Communion breakfasts, a St. Patrick's dance, lectures, a picnic, and movies.

This organization is open to all Catholic students attending RPI.

Westminster Fellowship

John Randolph Taylor Constance Ozlin Book	Advisors

The Westminster Fellowship of Students is the Christian Faith at work in the lives of students who are members of or have indicated a preference for the Presbyterian Church. The name, Westminster Fellowship of Students, is derived from the famous Westminster Assembly of Divines which met in 1643. In this Assembly the best scholarship of the day assembled for the purpose of making the Christian Faith articulate in the form of a Confession of Faith. The Westminster Confession of Faith which came out of this Assembly has been adopted by the Presbyterian Church in this country.

Edgar Pannell	S. G. A. Representative
John Henick Phil Pulizzi	Publicity

The Physical Therapy Club strives to promote professionalism. Our club is open to any physical therapy student at RPI and former students in their fourth year at MCV.

One of the annual social functions is a joint outing with the Occupational Therapy Club. This year our outing was held in Byrd Park. Another function we successfully sponsored at school was the March of Dimes Drive.

Psychology Club

Front Row: Dr. V. J. Bieliauskas, Charles Peachee, Samuel Ranson
Back Row: Frank Duffy, John McBride, Hannah Rose, Herman Daniels

OFFICERS

Samuel Ranson	Secretary-Treasurer
John McBride	S. G. A. Representative
Frank Duffy	Publicity
V. Joseph Bieliauskas	Advisor

The Psychology Club, another newcomer to RPI, was formed with the purpose of fostering interest in the field of psychology. It achieves that aim by encouraging scholastic betterment, by acquainting students with psychological service in the professional field, and by promoting mental hygiene in the school and community.

Its membership is open to psychology students who have completed twelve hours of psychology with a "B" average. Affiliate membership includes those students not eligible for full membership.

Sociology Club

Left to Right: Paul Mergler, Ernest Harris, Guy Webb, Earl Childress
Absent: Candy Winborne, William Goldsmith

OFFICERS

Ernest Harris	President
Bill Goldsmith	Vice-President
Candy Winborne	Secretary
Paul Mergler	Treasurer
Earl Childress	S. G. A. Representative
Dr. J. M. Snelling	Advisor

The Sociology Club is a recent addition to RPI's list of clubs. Its primary aim is of an educational nature, as its activities will attest.

While the club was formed for sociology majors, an affiliate membership is extended to those outside the department. At its regular meetings the club holds discussions, presents speakers and movies for the mutual interest and advantage of its membership.

Distributors Club

OFFICERS

Maurice Buckner	President
Rona Baker	Vice-President
Mary C. Jones	Secretary
Eleanor Zehmer	Treasurer
Pat Vint	Parliamentarian
Jenny Luck Nash	S. G. A. Representative
Mr. Robert Joy	Advisor

The Distributors Club is open to all students enrolled in this department. To create and to promote interest in retailing, persons from the field of retailing are invited to speak at our meetings.

Annually we sponsor two functions to better social relations, the Sadie Hawkins dance to which the girls invite the boys, and the banquet for the senior students which is held in May.

The Hucksters

Standing (Left to Right): Bill Smith, Bill Shotwell, Buddy Long
Seated: E. L. Derring, Mary Lou Nussman, Mrs. Dorothy Neely, Jimmy Dillon, Patricia Inge, Ben Fortunato
Absent: Tom Chick, Gerald Marple

Jimmy Dillon	President
Pat Inge	Vice-President
Buddy Long	Secretary
Jerry Marple	Treasurer
Mary Lou Nussman	S. G. A. Representative
Mrs. P. Neely	Advisor

The Hucksters Club was organized to promote professionalism and is open to all advertising students who have at least nine hours in advertising courses.

This year we successfully sponsored the Heart Drive at RPI, securing blood donors and contributions. We were very proud to be the first club to have one hundred per cent blood donors.

Women's Athletic Association

RPI's girls' basketball team wound up the season with one of their most successful records of late years. Among the highlights of the year was their one point upset over William and Mary, who had previously downed the RPI six for the past four terms.

Under the direction of Miss Frances Chapman, the RPI girls fielded another of their capable hockey teams. Throughout the season they demonstrated their spirit and ability and finished the season successfully.

The Men's Dormitory, located at 712 West Franklin Street, had an enrollment of ninety-three "bachelors." Among the highspots of the past year's activities we had a Christmas Party and a Spring Outing, both of which were limited to the dormitory students and their dates. Earlier in the year the men organized a successful football team.

Moore House, which inherited its name from a previous owner, is at 819 West Franklin Street. The thirty-two girls in this dormitory show interest, loyalty, and spirit in the student activities.

The Christmas and Halloween parties were among the successful house activities given. During the basketball season, we won a plaque for championship in the RPI intramurals.

Truly a friendly and homelike dorm, 828 Park had a total of thirty-seven girls. About one-fourth of these were freshmen.

Co-operating wholeheartedly whether having a party or conducting a campaign, they helped make this year successful. At Halloween, we had open house for the RPI students.

Lafayette Dormitory is convenient to Chelf's, where you may often see us run. We claim to be the only co-ed dorm on campus, for painters and paperers are always wandering around. If not workmen, then firemen are awakening us each morning.

Thanks to the workmen, we now have a wonderful recreation room, perfect for open house and parties. Even before this addition, however, we had numerous showers and parties. Any time in the spring, if your eyes are sharp enough, you can see our roof crowded with girls working on a sun-tan.

Between studies, our moods are enlivened by Lou and her "git-tar," boisterous Jody, and Jean with her portrait painting. These and other friends and our freshly papered dorm make us feel that we are one of the luckiest groups on campus.

Lee House, located at 902 Park Avenue, is a great rambling house which gets its name from a former owner, General Fitzhugh Lee. It is proud of its girls who have won awards while at school, for it boasts three Cotillion officers, one scholarship award winner, two class sweethearts, and one scholarship winner.

Among the activities held at Lee House this year were: a Halloween Open House and Christmas and Record Parties.

Ritter-Hickok Dormitory is a lovely yellow brick home located near the cafeteria. In our house most of the talk centers upon marriage and school functions, because the majority of the girls are engaged and many are leaders at RPI.

The major planned social functions of the year are the Halloween Open House and a picnic in the spring. Other parties were held after hours at Christmas, and our hostess surprised us with a party following exams. Any time in the spring one may see a crowd sitting on the front steps singing to ukuleles. To add to the enjoyment of the living room, each girl contributed so that we could buy a radio-victrola combination.

Constantly adding to the gaiety are Judy, smoking her pipe; dramatic Mary Ann; boisterous Jo; and busy Ann Huffman, a true leader. Although we have arguments, do not let anyone tell you that we are not devoted.

Shafer Dormitory is located near the Administration Building. Very often you may see one of us rambling around soaking wet, for we have quite a few water battles in our dormitory.

The major social function that we sponsor is the Halloween Open House. We also had a Christmas Party after hours, complete with candles and stocking caps. During the week before Christmas each girl had a buddy with whom she exchanged small presents every day.

Always adding to our giggles are June, Barbara and Jo, the witty trio. For entertainment we also have Ida, our champion swimmer.

Founders Hall is a large brick dormitory adjoining the cafeteria. The school infirmary and nurse's office are located in this building.

We started our social functions with a Halloween Open House, for which the dormitory was gaily decorated. Numerous showers and a Christmas party were also held. To add to the enjoyment of our house, a new victrola was bought.

Besides having many school leaders in the dorm, there is always "Crip" to entertain us with her ukulele. We are very proud of our Gustkey twins, one of whom was chosen Carnival Queen. Soon after exams, we instituted Secret Pal Week to bind us in closer friendships within the dormitory. We hope that next year every dormitory will have this week.

Meredith House is a large dormitory situated on Park Avenue. This is a favorite with the men, perhaps because of the large selection and the number of freshmen.

The girls living here are very active in campus affairs. The major dormitory functions are the Halloween Open House, a Christmas Party, and a Spring Outing. Many smaller showers and parties are held throughout the year, however. To add to the beauty of the home, new floors have been installed this year.

Our girls seem to have a passion for poetry, and Cookie and Frances help to keep our laughter high, along with Phyllis and her chatter of Carolina.

PLANNING FOR FUTURE SECURITY

Thousands of young men and women leave colleges and universities this year endowed with the many benefits higher education provides.

A large segment, many classmates of yours, owes the wealth of college training to life insurance purchased years ago by a loving parent or relative.

Life insurance guarantees many other personal ambitions too, and its ownership will bring you the same satisfaction and security it now provides millions in all walks of life.
